

THE ROYAL

BELGRAVE ROAD • VENTNOR • ISLE OF WIGHT

Welcome to The Royal Hotel wine list. We have hand-picked a balance of the classics, from traditional producers who consistently deliver palate-pleasing vintages, alongside boutique wines from passionate winemakers who farm organically - and even bio-dynamically. So whether you want the kind of wine to put a smile on your face, or fuel to set the world to rights, we hope you'll find something to suit your mood (and meal) here.

We look closer to home - mainly to France, Italy and Spain, with the odd foray elsewhere in the Old World. But we couldn't ignore the exciting stuff happening in the New World either, so we have cherry-picked a few of our latest finds to round things out. And yes, there are more home-grown wines on the list than ever before: English wines are making waves globally (particularly our sparkling wines) and we've chosen some of our favourites to include here.

BELGRAVE ROAD • VENTNOR • ISLE OF WIGHT

Most of the wines are exclusive to The Royal, so you won't see them anywhere else on the Island. To make things easy, we've split the list into flavour categories, so you know at a glance what you're in the mood for.

By the Glass and Carafe

Sparkling

Glass 125ml

- 130 Prosecco, Colli Trevigianni NV, Cantina Bernardi, Veneto (Glera) Italy £6.50
A deliciously playful fizz with a whiff of fresh apple blossom and pear skin, and a crunchy, lemony finish.
- 131 Joseph Perrier, Cuvée Royale, Brut NV, Champagne, (Chardonnay/Pinot Noir blend) France £9.50
Keep it Royal with one of Queen Victoria's favourite Champagne houses (allegedly): baked apple, toasted brioche and almonds.

Whites

Glass 175ml

Carafe 500ml

- 143 Trefili, 2016, Cantina Volpi, Lombardia, (Pinot Grigio) Italy £6.50 £20.00
Ticks all the boxes for a clean, fresh, fruity Pinot Grigio.
- 144 Picpoul de Pinet, 2015, Duc de Morny, Cave de L'Ormarine, Languedoc, (Picpoul) France £7.00 £21.00
One of the rare appellations in Southern France made from a single variety, Picpoul is a Languedoc success story: fresh, sappy and lemony, with a saline edge, perfect for seafood.
- 164 Gran Cerdo Blanco, 2016, Rioja, Spain (Viura blend) Spain £6.75 £20.00
Winemaker Gonzalo gets a little help from the moon to make this pure, vibrant, fruity white.
- 165 Mayfly, 2017, Marlborough, (Sauvignon Blanc) New Zealand £7.00 £22.00
Great fruit, sourced by top guys, from the region that put the variety on the map: think grapefruit, asparagus and freshly mown grass.
- 180 Campo Fiorito, 2015, Il Cascinone, Piedmont, (Chardonnay) Italy £6.25 £18.00
If you love white Burgundy, you'll like this: restrained, textural, gently honeyed.

Rosé

Glass 175ml

Carafe 500ml

- 220 Les Oliviers, 2017, Pays d'Oc, (Grenache/Cinsault) France £6.00 £17.00
It might be pale in colour, but not on the palate - a juicy strawberry Mivvi of a wine, with a brisk, crisp finish.

Reds

Glass 175ml

Carafe 500ml

- 251 Ca' di Alte, 2016, Veneto, (Pinot Nero, aka Pinot Noir) Italy £6.25 £19.00
With its appealing berry fruit, it puts many a Burgundian Pinot Noir to shame.
- 260 Artesa, 2016, Bodega Artesa, Rioja, (Tempranillo) Spain £6.50 £19.00
Youthful, fruity red with ripe plum and cherry fruit from a large family-owned estate in the Mediterranean-influenced Rioja Baja.
- 261 Château Haut-Grelot, 2014, Blaye, Bordeaux, (Merlot blend) France £7.75 £23.00
A great value Merlot-based Bordeaux from the less glamorous Blaye region, that is seeing increasing numbers of seriously dedicated producers.
- 270 Monrouby, 2016, IGP Pay d'Oc, (Syrah/Carignan) France £6.25 £18.00
Smooth, plummy, blackberry-packed glugger from a village found deep in the sun-drenched Languedoc.
- 271 Terra d'Alter 'TN' 2016, Alentejo, (Touriga Nacional) Portugal £7.75 £21.50
The star grape of Portugal's port-making Douro Valley, it shines here, thanks to Aussie winemaker Peter Bright: ripe red fruits, vanilla spice, salty finish.

|-----|--|---------|---------|
| 130 | Prosecco, Colli Trevigiani, NV, Cantina Bernardi, Veneto (Glera)A deliciously playful fizz with a whiff of fresh apple blossom and pear skin, and a crunchy, lemony finish.   | Italy   | £30.00  |
| 131 | Joseph Perrier, Cuvée Royale, Brut NV, Champagne, (Chardonnay/Pinot Noir blend)Keep it Royal with one of Queen Victoria's favourite Champagne houses (allegedly): baked apple, toasted brioche and almonds.   | France  | £55.00  |
| 132 | Davenport Limney Rosé, 2014, East Sussex, (Chardonnay blend)The first ever rosé from dynamic winemaker Will Davenport, and one of only three commercial UK vineyards to become exclusively organic. Love.   | England | £58.00  |
| 133 | Gusbourne Brut Reserve, 2013, Kent, (Chardonnay blend)Consultant orthopaedic surgeon-turned-grape-grower Andrew Weeber's first vintage was only in 2006, and look at it now - fresh, characterful and balanced.                                       | England | £60.00  |
| 134 | Charles Heidsieck Brut Reserve, NV, Champagne, (Chardonnay/Pinot Noir blend)They don't win Sparkling Winemaker of the Year at the International Wine Challenge a staggering 15 times for nothing.   | France  | £75.00  |
| 135 | Joseph Perrier, Cuvée Royale, 2004, Champagne, (Chardonnay/Pinot Noir blend)Add some prime fruit and a few more years languishing in the cellar and you get this – pillowy mousse, nutty, quince and apricot fruit, with a spike of elevating citrus. | France  | £90.00  |
| 136 | Dom Pérignon, 2006, Moët &amp; Chandon, Champagne, (Chardonnay/Pinot Noir blend)Named after the Benedictine monk who 'invented' Champagne, this is top tier stuff: beautifully fine, ethereal, precise.   | France  | £199.00 |

Zippy, Minerally, Fresh

- |     |  |        |        |
|-----|--|--------|--------|
| 140 | Alasia, 2016, Piedmont, (Cortese)Made using Piedmont's Cortese grape by one of northern Italy's most forward thinking co-operatives, it offers clean, fresh, citrusy flavours.  | Italy  | £22.00 |
| 141 | Ciello Bianco, 2017, Sicily, (Catarratto)This signature Sicilian grape shines here on the hills above Alcamo delivering a fragrant, pink grapefruit nose and apple, almond finish.  | Italy  | £24.00 |
| 142 | Domaine de Vedilhan, 2017, Languedoc, (Sauvignon Blanc)If New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc isn't quite your thing, then try this minerally little number, which is more restrained and less in-your-face.  | France | £25.00 |
| 143 | Trefili, 2016, Cantina Volpi, Lombardia, (Pinot Grigio)Ticks all the boxes for a clean, fresh, fruity Pinot Grigio.   | Italy  | £27.00 |
| 144 | Picpoul de Pinet, 2015, Duc de Morny, Cave de L'Ormarine, Languedoc, (Picpoul)One of the rare appellations in Southern France made from a single variety, Picpoul is a Languedoc success story: fresh, sappy and lemony, with a saline edge, perfect for seafood. | France | £29.00 |

145	Muscadet sur lie 'Les Coteaux' 2016, Domaine des Baluettes, Loire, (Melon de Bourgogne) This zingy, citrusy grape deserves a comeback.	France	£32.00
146	Txakoli de Getaria, 2015, Ametzoi, Basque Country, (Hondarrabi Zuri) A tart, spritzy, sea breeze of a wine from the magical north coast of Spain – but be warned, it's curiously addictive.	Spain	£36.00
147	Soave Classico, 2017, Pieropan, Veneto, (Garganega blend) And you thought Soave was a non-descript white? Think again – this is class.	Italy	£37.00
148	Horsmonden White, 2016, Limney Vineyard, Davenport Vineyards, East Sussex, (Bacchus blend) Bit like a New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc but more grapefruity, with a pleasing waft of hedgerow - elegant stuff.	England	£40.00
149	Pouilly-Fumé, Jean-Claude Dagueneau, 2016, Domaines des Berthiers, Loire, (Sauvignon Blanc) A scion of the famous Dagueneau clan, the wine is aged on the lees for added richness and trademark toastiness.	France	£50.00

Bright, Fragrant, Aromatic

160	Blockhead, 2016, Western Cape, (Chenin Blanc) From workhorse grape to elegant expresser of terroir, Chenin Blanc is South Africa's calling card – try this one on for size: ripe, citrus and tropical fruits, crisp finish.	South Africa	£22.00
161	Campo Flores Blanco, 2016, La Mancha, (Verdejo/Sauvignon Blanc) A pretty little thing this, making the best of fruit from old bush vines: aromatic, peachy and floral, with a squeeze of citrus.	Spain	£23.00
162	Vinho Verde, 2017, Quinta de Azevedo, Minho, (Loureiro blend) Made in the cooler northwest of the country but that equals more vibrant fruit and a touch of spritz to boot.	Portugal	£27.00
163	Alamina, Feteasca Regala, 2016, Viila Timisului, (Feteasca Regala) It might not be as easy to say as Chardonnay, but its citrusy, pineapple, white pepper fruit will slip down nicely – and make The Royal's Romanian restaurant manager, Iolandin, happy.	Romania	£27.00
164	Gran Cerdo Blanco, 2016, Rioja, Spain (Viura blend) Winemaker Gonzalo gets a little help from the moon to make this pure, vibrant, fruity white.	Spain	£28.00
165	Mayfly, 2017, Marlborough, (Sauvignon Blanc) Great fruit, sourced by top guys, from the region that put the variety on the map: think grapefruit, asparagus and freshly mown grass.	New Zealand	£29.00
166	Amalaya, 2017, Calchaqui Valley, Salta, (Torrantes/Riesling) A sense of place and a crisp, grapefruity twist to this high altitude stunner.	Argentina	£30.00
167	Jurançon Sec, 2014, Clos Lapeyre, Jurançon, (Gros Manseng) Winemaker Jean-Bernard Larrieu is one of the poets of Jurançon producing wines with aromatic intensity.	France	£35.00
168	Trocken, 2016, Hermann Dönnhoff, Nahe, (Riesling) Thrillingly racy, limey, minerally fruit from a Riesling master.	Germany	£40.00

Textured, Savoury, Intense

- |     |   |             |        |
|-----|---|-------------|--------|
| 180 | Campo Fiorito, 2015, Il Cascinone, Piedmont, (Chardonnay)If you love white Burgundy, you'll like this: restrained, textural, gently honeyed.   | Italy       | £24.00 |
| 181 | Verdicchio di Matelica, 'Terre di Valbona' 2017, Belisario Le Marche, (Verdicchio)The smaller cousin of the Castello di Jesi DOC, Matelica offers lovely aromatics and white pepper spice.   | Italy       | £26.00 |
| 182 | Grüner Veltliner, 2016, Martin and Anna Arndorfer, Kamptal, (Grüner Veltliner)The Arndorfers like to push the boundaries. Fermented and matured in small barrels – spicy and herby.  | Austria     | £34.00 |
| 183 | Cave de Vinum Blanc, 2016, Mas de Libian, Ardèche, Rhône, (Roussanne blend)This working farm has been in the Thibon family since 1670 – gorgeous floral, honeysuckle fruit, merging into sweet hay and herbs.  | France      | £38.00 |
| 184 | Valdespino Innocente Fino, NV, Jerez, (Palomino)Yes, you did read this right – it's a dry sherry in the white wine section. Radical, huh? At only 15% abv you can sip it like a wine as they do in Jerez, and it's a single vineyard one at that, fermented in oak butts for ten years. A textbook fino, it's wonderfully complex and thrillingly dry. | Spain       | £40.00 |
| 185 | Mâcon-Fuissé 'Bois de la Croix' 2016, Domaine Thibert, Burgundy, (Chardonnay)Pouilly-Fuissé might grab most of the attention in Burgundy's southern Mâconnais sub-region, but those-in-the-know snap up the Thiberts' elegant, beautifully balanced Mâcon-Fuissé.  | France      | £44.00 |
| 186 | Tsolikouri, 2016, Pheasant's Tears, Kakheti, (Tsolikouri)A three-man mission to preserve traditional winemaking techniques, including qvevri (large earthenware vessels used for fermentation, storage and ageing), and tongue-twisting varietals such as this: thrilling and richly textured.   | Georgia     | £45.00 |
| 187 | Greywacke 'Wild Sauvignon' 2015, Kevin Judd, Marlborough, (Sauvignon Blanc)Flinty, smoky, savoury, this messes with your head (in a good way) - Pouilly-Fumé fans will love it.  | New Zealand | £52.00 |
| 188 | Mineral Plus, 2016, Domaine Frantz Saumon, Montlouis, Loire, (Chenin Blanc)Frantz ditched the day job in forestry to make wine – and aren't we glad he did? A cerebral Chenin, with intense minerality and haunting aromatics.   | France      | £53.00 |
| 189 | Chablis, Premier Cru, Domaine Defaix, Côte de Lechet, 2016, Burgundy, (Chardonnay)One of the oldest and finest producers with a winemaking history that reaches back 250 years, producing sinewy, steely Chablis with great purity of flavour.   | France      | £57.00 |
| 190 | Meursault 'Les Tillets' 2015, Domaine Jean Javillier, Burgundy, (Chardonnay)There are more top producers here than in any other part of the Côte d'Or, but dig deep and you'll find (relative) bargains such as this: nutty, waxy, savoury, vanilla spice.   | France      | £75.00 |

Rich, Lush, Voluptuous

- |     |  |              |        |
|-----|--|--------------|--------|
| 200 | Il Folle, 2016, Sicily, (Grillo)Intense and vibrant, with aromas of hothouse flowers and a preserved lemon finish, made from grapes hand-picked from the hills around the town of Marsala.  | Italy        | £23.00 |
| 201 | Mas La Chevalière, 2017, Laroche, Pays d'Oc, (Viognier)It took Michel Laroche 10 years to find the right vineyards for this (near Béziers): orange blossom and spice, apricot on the finish.  | France       | £30.00 |
| 202 | Pinot Gris Tinpot Hut, 2016, Marlborough, (Pinot Gris)Winemaker Fiona Turner works her magic on this underrated grape to produce something rather sublime: ripe pear and white peach, good palate weight.   | New Zealand  | £34.00 |
| 203 | Sylvaner, 2010, Rolly Gassmann, Alsace, (Sylvaner)One of Alsace's noble and lowest profile white grapes, here raised on to an off-dry plinth, with a big, food-friendly dollop of balancing acidity.  | France       | £35.00 |
| 204 | Intellego, 2016, Swartland, (Chenin Blanc)Winemaker Jurgen Gouws teases out rich fruit with an intriguing Middle Eastern-spiciness, highlighting just how exciting things are in Swartland winemaking right now.                                    | South Africa | £43.00 |
| 205 | Albert Mann, 2015, Alsace, (Pinot Gris)And then see what happens to the grape in the hands of a master back in the old country - or rather two masters, brothers Maurice and Jacky Barthelmé: all quince and baked apple.                           | France       | £44.00 |
| 206 | 'Wild Boy' Chardonnay, 2014, Au Bon Climat, Santa Barbara, California, (Chardonnay)Deliberately made in a more opulent style by Jim Clendenen, the wildest winemaker in the West: rich, ripe tropical fruit with supporting acidity and minerality. | USA          | £54.00 |

Lively, Pretty, More-ish

- |     |  |        |        |
|-----|--|--------|--------|
| 220 | Les Oliviers, 2017, Pays d'Oc, (Grenache/Cinsault)It might be pale in colour, but not on the palate - a juicy strawberry Mivvi of a wine, with a brisk, crisp finish.   | France | £23.00 |
| 221 | Gallardia Rosé, 2017, De Martino, Itata, (Cinsault)Displaying oh so pretty raspberry and cranberry fruit, thanks to grapes grown in the cool climate Itata Valley within sniffing distance of the Pacific.  | Chile  | £33.00 |
| 222 | Bandol Rosé, 2015, Domaine La Suffrene, Provence, (Mourvèdre blend)He might not have been bottling for long (by Provence standards), but winemaker Cedric Gravier is already a superstar: wild strawberries, melon and citrus with an elegant minerality. | France | £41.00 |

Easy, Fruity, Juicy

- |     |  |        |        |
|-----|--|--------|--------|
| 250 | Villa Saint-Jean Rouge, 2016, Villa Saint-Jean, Pays D'Oc, (Syrah blend)Head southeast out of Avignon and you'll find this happy cherry, plummy red.                    | France | £23.00 |
| 251 | Ca' di Alte, 2017, Veneto, (Pinot Nero, aka Pinot Noir)With its appealing berry fruit, it puts many a Burgundian Pinot Noir to shame.                                   | Italy  | £26.00 |
| 252 | Alpha Zeta 'V' Valpolicella, 2017, Veneto, (Corvina blend)What do you get when you put a top New Zealand winemaker in the Veneto? This cherry pie of a wine. Delicious. | Italy  | £29.00 |
| 253 | Bierzo Brezo Tinto, 2016, Bodega Mengoba, Bierzo, (Mencía)Wondrously dense purple fruit with flavours on the damson, cherry spectrum, plus a touch of thyme.            | Spain  | £31.00 |
| 254 | VDT Gamay, Raisins Gaulois, 2016, Beaujolais, (Gamay)Guaranteed to take anyone to their happy place – find a sunny corner and drink chilled.                            | France | £35.00 |

Supple, Savoury, Ripe

- |     |   |         |        |
|-----|---|---------|--------|
| 260 | Artesa, 2016, Bodega Artesa, Rioja, (Tempranillo)Youthful, fruity red with ripe plum and cherry fruit from a large family-owned estate in the Mediterranean-influenced Rioja Baja.   | Spain   | £27.00 |
| 261 | Château Haut-Grelot, 2014, Blaye, Bordeaux, (Merlot blend)A great value Merlot-based Bordeaux from the less glamorous Blaye region, that is seeing increasing numbers of seriously dedicated producers.  | France  | £32.00 |
| 262 | Meinklang, 2015, Burgenland, (Pinot Noir)A fresh, more-ish, succulent Pinot Noir that has a little spritz in its step, and would welcome a little chilling.  | Austria | £36.00 |
| 263 | Blafränkisch Horitschoner, 2015, Franz Weninger, Burgenland, (Blafränkisch)Franz likes to show off the region's soil types using Blafränkisch – and this one is tangy, spicy, earthy, distinctive.   | Austria | £37.00 |
| 264 | Saumur-Champigny, 2016, Domaine des Roches Neuves, Loire, (Cabernet Franc)Charismatic winemaker Thierry Germain has built up an almost fanatical following for his exciting wines – velvety, herbaceous, smoky.  | France  | £40.00 |
| 265 | Crozes-Hermitage, 2015, Cave de Tain, Rhône, (Syrah)This impressive co-operative is situated at the foot of the famous Hermitage hillside, the acknowledged birthplace of the Syrah grape.   | France  | £41.00 |
| 266 | Château La Croix Chantecaille, 2014, Grand Cru Saint-Émilion, Bordeaux, (Merlot blend)One of Bordeaux's largest winemaking appellations, with vineyards found mostly on the steep limestone slopes of the village itself: aromas of macerated cherries and dark chocolate and the savouriness of a swiftly flipped rare steak. | France  | £45.00 |

Intense, Powerful, Structured

270	Monrouby, 2016, IGP Pay d'Oc, (Syrah/Carignan) Smooth, plummy, blackberry-packed glugger from a village found deep in the sun-drenched Languedoc.	France	£25.00
271	Terra d'Alter 'TN' 2016, Alentejo, (Touriga Nacional) The star grape of Portugal's port-making Douro Valley, it shines here, thanks to Aussie winemaker Peter Bright: ripe red fruits, vanilla spice, salty finish.	Portugal	£30.00
272	'Punto Final' 2017, Bodega Renacer, Mendoza, (Malbec) Succulent, ripe, dark fruits from the foothills of the Andes.	Argentina	£31.00
273	Ventoux 'La Gerine' 2016, Domaine La Ferme Saint-Martin, Beaumes-de-Venise, Rhône Valley, (Grenache/Carignan) The grapes are lightly trodden by foot, oh yes. A lovely purity, with dark berry fruits and an elegant bay, roasted herb nose.	France	£36.00
274	Shiraz, 2015, Smallfry Wines, Barossa, (Shiraz) Think new wave Aussie Shiraz from two married viticulturists turned winemakers: elegantly integrated oaked, fresh acidity, vibrant plum, cassis and cinnamon fruit.	Australia	£44.00
275	Irouléguay, 2013, Domaine Arretxea, Basque country, (Tannat blend) A true mountain wine (the Pyrenees) that has become a standard-bearer for the region and shouts Sunday Roast.	Spain	£48.00
276	Châteauneuf-du-Pape 'Signature' 2014, Domaine La Barroche, Rhône, (Grenache blend) Talk about terroir – this has it all, embodying both the fullness and the finesse, with ripe red and black fruits, subtle spice, touch of cocoa and lavender, plus fine tannins.	France	£77.00

Sweet

Heady, Blossomy, Fragrant

			Glass 100ml	Bottle
360	'Douce Providence' 2015, Clos du Gravillas, Languedoc-Roussillon, (Muscat de Saint-Jean de Minervois) Gravillas means 'gravel' in local patois, which gives you a clue to the soil type. Muscat is what Saint-Jean de Minervois is famous for: floral and fruity with orange flower and honeysuckle on the nose, and a refreshing mandarin, grapefruit finish.	France	£7.00	£34.00 500ml
361	Sauternes, Château Filhot, 2011, Bordeaux, (Semillon blend) Where? Just north of Sauternes on a gravelly hillside. The big dollop of Sauvignon gives it a fruitier more aromatic quality than some bigger-style Sauternes.	France	£10.00	£43.00 375ml

Sticky, Nutty, Naughty

362	Maury, 1928 Solera, NV, Les Vignerons de Maury, Roussillon, (Grenache) Very ripe grapes are fortified and aged in small barrels for many years, the oldest of which dates back to 1928, making this one of the best value French wines ever, from one of the best co-ops: nutty and figgy with a toffee sweetness and balancing acidity.	France	£9.00	£40.00 500ml
-----	--	--------	-------	-----------------

		Glass 50ml
363	Lustau East India Solera Sherry, NV, Jerez, (Palomino Fino, Pedro Ximenez) Lustau's delicious nod to the 17 th century tradition of shipping wines to the East Indies, a marriage of old oloroso and aged sweet PX: raisiny, dates, toffee and walnuts with a salty edge brought by the oloroso.	Spain £4.00
370	Late Bottled Vintage Port 2011, Weise &amp; Krohn (Touriga Nacional blend) A confusing category but all you really need to is that it's a vintage port in style but not price, and once bottled it's ready to drink: bursting with black plums and spice.	Portugal £4.00
371	Vintage Port 2003, Weise &amp; Krohn (Touriga Nacional blend) Port deserves a comeback. In short, it's one of the classic wines of the world and vintage port can be ranked alongside the finest Burgundies and Bordeaux. This one has intense red berry fruit with layers of flavour that linger on the palate.	Portugal £8.00

Bin Ends

Whites

		WAS	NOW
401	Picpoul de Pinet, 2016, Picpoul d'Isabelle, Languedoc (Picpoul) Youthfully pale lemon yellow with a nose of lemon and lime fruit, Vibrant green apple fruit with a refreshingly dry and acidic finish.	France £30.00	£26.00
402	Gavi DOCG, 2016, La Battistina, Piemonte (Cortese) Aromatic, zesty, sherbet nose with apple and pear fruit, and a hint of minerality. Juicy, weighty fruit with a zippy, citric acid mouth watering feel creating a refreshing, satisfying finish.	Italy £30.00	£26.00
403	The Rude Mechanicals, 2014, (Viognier/Pinot Gris) Scents of super-ripe pineapple and guava rising over the honeysuckle and orange-blossom signatures of the Viognier, harmonizing beautifully with background fragrances of musk and pear from the Pinot Gris. The palate is voluptuous with tropical-fruit flavours, subtle fresh hints of lemongrass and spicy ginger.	Australia £35.00	£30.00
404	Bantry Bay, 2017, Western Cape (Chenin Blanc) An aromatic wine with hints of tropical and citrus fruit on the nose and tastes of pineapple and pears on the palate, backed up with firm acidity.	South Africa £26.00	£23.00
405	False Bay, 2016, Waterkloof (Sauvignon Blanc) Lovely and fresh with crisp aromatics, green fruit, ripe apple and floral aromas.	South Africa £27.00	£24.00
406	Louis Eschenauer Cépages, 2016, Pays d'Oc (Chardonnay) Round and pleasing wine, fine balance with notes of lemon. Very expressive with notes of fresh butter, acacia, pineapple and tropical fruit. Goes well with grilled fish, white meat, seafood and appetizers.	France £27.00	£24.00

420	Nicolas Potel, 2015, Bourgogne, (Pinot Noir) A restrained nose of berry fruit, principally strawberry and blackcurrant, is followed by a soft edged palate with lithe and supple tannins.	£37.00	£32.00
421	Morgon Cote de Py, 2014, Le Cru aux Roches Pourries (Gamay) Self-evidently a grower's wine from the best slope in Morgon, its moody inner soul of primary, even angular jumbled flavours destine this adolescent to be a stunning beauty.	£35.00	£30.00
422	Torre Cerere, 2016, Abruzzo (Montepulciano) This is a soft, fruity approachable red produced from Montepulciano grapes. With notes of warm plum and blackberry fruits.	£27.00	£23.00
423	Pavillion des Trois Arches, 2016, PGI Pays d'Oc (Merlot) Deep ruby red in colour with aromas of berries and sweet spice. The pallet is smooth and rich with a depth of flavour that continues in the mouth.	£30.00	£26.00
424	Kaiken Reserve, 2015, Mendoza (Malbec) This wine has an intensely ruby red colour, with fruity aromas and a predominance of black fruits accompanied by notes of coffee and chocolate flavours.	£33.00	£29.00
425	Don Placero, 2013, Navajas Rioja, (Tempranillo) Morello cherry red with violet highlights, and a good balance in aroma between the liveliness and fruitiness of the dominant variety and the delicious oak nuances.	£31.00	£27.00
